

World History Sample Document

1. The Industrial Revolution: Transitioning European economies from manual artisan labor to factory production systems between 1760 and 1840, industrialization relied on British coal deposits, steam engines, mechanized textile looms, and widespread urbanization.
2. World War I & Global Alliances: Systemic factors including militarism, imperialism, and European alliance chains escalated into continental conflict following the June 1914 assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand. trench warfare dominated the Western Front until the 1918 Armistice.
3. World War II & Modern Diplomacy: Sparked by the 1939 German invasion of Poland, WWII allied forces defeated Axis coalitions in 1945. The subsequent international order established the United Nations to prevent future geopolitical aggression.